MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1770.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 3.

SINCE the Inroads the Ruſſians have made into the Morea, &c. our Army has been reinforced by 40000 Men from Aſia, and conſiſts now of 150,000 Men.

Three Tartars arrived here the 14th and 17th ult. diſpatched by the Pacha of Morea, with Advice, that the Inhabitants of that Peninſula had revolted; that the Pacha had marched at the Head of 15,000 Men, and had driven them to the Mountains; but that the Revolters being reinforced, had come from their Heights, to the Number of 30,000, and had forced the Pacha to retire to the Fortreſs of Napoli di Romana, ſituate in the Gulph of that Name.

We learn that on the 24th ult. Ali Pacha having paſſed the Danube, at the Head of 12,000 Men, with a View to cover the Workmen employed in repairing the Bridges on that River, had been attacked and defeated by the Ruſſians, and that the latter had afterwards deſtroyed the Bridges.

NAPLES, April 4. The Greeks have made a horrible Maſſacre of the Turks in the Morea, ſparing neither Age nor Sex, in Revenge for the Behaviour of the Turks when they ſeized on that Country.

MARSEILLES, (France) May 6. We have juſt received, by way of Italy, the horrid News, that the Grand Signior, in Reſentment of the general Revolt of the Greeks in the Morea, and of their joining the Ruſſians, has cauſed all the Greeks at Conſtantinople to be maſſacred. Independent of the Uneaſineſs we are under concerning the Progreſs of the Ruſſian Arms in the Morea, by Means of which the Engliſh will extend their Commerce in the Levant, our Merchants are in the utmoſt Conſternation, on Account of the large Demands they have on the ſlaughtered Greeks, to whom they had ſold Merchandizes to a very great Amount in Credit.

WARSAW, May 12. The Face of Affairs in this Kingdom is ſo changed, that we are not only in Hopes that a general Confederacy will be formed, but likewiſe that the King will convoke a general Diet, which, by its wiſe Reſolutions, may provide a Cure for the Wounds which Diſcord has given the State.

May 16. We have the following Intelligence from the grand Ruſſian Army, and alſo by Letters from Kaminieck, viz. A Corps of 20,000 Turks ventured to croſs the Danube with a View to attack Lieut. Gen. Stoffeln, who was in the Environs of Buchareſt, but he was apprized of their coming by the light Troops, and took his Meaſures ſo well, that he attacked the Turks at a Time when they had the leaſt Thoughts of it, which lucky Event put them to the Flight; 3000 were killed on the Spot, and many taken Priſoners: The Ruſſians took likewiſe all their Baggage and Artillery. This Battle happened the 5th Inſtant not far from Brahilow.

From the WEISSEL, May 13. We have an Account from the grand Ruſſian Army, that they will have intirely paſſed the Neiſter about the Middle of this Month. The Ruſſians will now haſten their Operations againſt the Turks on every Side, viz. The Generals Romanzow on the Danube, Panin againſt Bender, Berg againſt Crimea, Tottleben againſt Natolia, whom the Fleet at Aſoph will aid, and afterwards in the Morea, and the head Squadron of the Ruſſian Fleet in the Archipelago, and againſt Conſtantinople itſelf. Major General Soritch has beaten a Corps of Tartars near Bender in ſuch Manner that they ſhew no Deſire of ſerving any more againſt the Ruſſians.

TRIESTE, May 19. The following Account is now given us of the Demolition of Patras, which is deſtroyed from the very Foundation. The Garriſon in the Caſtle which was blocked up, made on the 13th of April, at Seven in the Morning, a Sally, which being ſupported by 6000 Foot and 4000 Horſe, they made themſelves Maſters of the City, and put all in it, able to bear Arms, to the Sword. The Reſiſtance made to them was very ſmall; for the Turks having ſet fire to the City in many different Places, ſuch of the unfortunate Inhabitants as could not eſcape became a Prey either to the Flames or the Sword of the Barbarians. This Carnage laſted ſeveral Hours. The foreign Conſuls had the good Fortune to eſcape to Zante, all except the Son of the Engliſh Conſul, who had a good deal of Difficulty to get out of the Hands of the Turks: For this young Gentleman being retired to his Hotel with Two Neapolitan Travellers, and ſeveral Women and young Ladies belonging to the principal Perſons of the City, to the Number of about 70, a Body of Albanians, armed with Hatchets, endeavoured to force his Gates; but he repreſenting to them that his Nation was in Alliance with the Porte, they conducted him to the Caſtle, together with all that were with him. In this Fortreſs he ſaw a great Number of Perſons beheaded, and but for the Arrival of the Turkiſh Commander, who knew him, would have undergone the ſame Fate. The Turkiſh Officer ordered him to be conducted to his own Apartments, where he remained 'til Five in the Evening, when he ordered him to be reconveyed to his Hotel, under a ſtrong Eſcort; but on his Arrival there, he found it in Aſhes, ſo that about Duſk, he withdrew to the Sea Side with all his Retinue, and One Domeſtic, and after Three Hours March on the Shore happily found a Bark, into which he got with all who fled to him, and arrived ſafe at Zante. The whole City he deſtroyed, together with all the Villages around, and moſt of the Inhabitants murdered.

LONDON.

May 29. A Monk, at the late Maſquerade, was aſked by a Merry Andrew, why he mixed in ſuch Company? Why, moraliſing (anſwered the Holy Father) for I conſider this motley Aſſembly as an emblem of Death, which levels all Diſtinctions; for here the Woman of Quality and a common Proſtitute mix together; the Peer and the Runner at a Bagnio.

An Addreſs and Petition from the Parliament in Ireland is preparing to be brought over by ſeveral of its Members to be preſented to his Majeſty.

The Ruſſians, by their Succeſſes in the laſt Campaign, are Maſters of Chocrim, and conſequently have the Paſſage open on that Side to enter the Turkiſh Dominions whenever the Seaſon will permit; they are alſo Maſters of Walachia and Moldavia; they are in Poſſeſſion of every Inch of Ground on this Side the Nieſter and the Danube, and have now opened a Paſſage on the other Side of the Mediterranean, by the Conqueſt of the greateſt Part of the Morea.

Extract of a Letter from a Correſpondent at Paris.

"To the Liſt of the French Fleet which I ſome Time ago ſent you, and which you may be aſſured is exact, you may now add to it Forty others from 64 to 84 Guns, the Duke of Choiſſeul having purchaſed that Number of the late Eaſt-India Company. The French Fleet at this Time conſiſts of upwards of an Hundred Sail, which may be ready for the Sea in a very ſhort Time, and which can be completely manned in the Space of a Week.

Yeſterday ſome Diſpatches of great Moment were received at St. James's, from the Court of Peterſburgh.

There is at this preſent Time a larger Demand for Ship Cannon and other Military Stores, than has been known for many Years in Time of Peace.

May 31. The National Debt, on the 5th of January laſt, was 128,999,036l. Sterling; the annual Intereſt of which amounts to 4,595,940l.

YESTERDAY the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, attended by about Sixteen Aldermen, the Sheriffs, and a great Number of Common Councilmen, waited on his Majeſty at St. James's, with the following Addreſs on the Birth of a Princeſs; They were all moſt graciouſly received, and had the Honour of kiſſing his Majeſty's Hand: The Four following Aldermen, viz. Brackley Kennet, John Kirkman, James Roſſeter, and John Bird, Eſqrs. received the Honour of Knighthood.

To the KING's moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble ADDRESS of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE wait upon your Majeſty with our Congratulations on the happy Delivery of our moſt gracious Queen, and on the Birth of another Princeſs; and "to aſſure your Majeſty that there are not in all your Dominions any Subjects more faithful, more dutiful, and more affectionate to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, or more ready to ſacrifice their Lives and Fortunes, in the Maintenance of the true Honour and Dignity of your Crown."

Long may your Majeſty reign the true Guardian of the Liberties of this free Country, and be the Inſtrument in the Hands of Providence of tranſmitting to your Poſterity thoſe invaluable Rights and Privileges, which are the Birthright of the Subjects of this Kingdom.

To which the King, ſteadily, and in a Manner becoming the Head of this great Empire, gave a gracious Anſwer, and concluded with ſaying, "That whilſt the Citizens of London addreſſed him with ſuch Profeſſions of Loyalty, they ſhould be ſure of his Protection." They were all very graciouſly received, and had the Honour of kiſſing his Majeſty's Hand.

After the Lord Mayor had waited in the Antichamber at St. James's a conſiderable Time, the Lord Chamberlain came out with a Paper in his Hand, and read to the following Effect: "As your Lordſhip thought fit to ſpeak to his Majeſty after his Anſwer to the late Remonſtrance, I am to acquaint your Lordſhip, as it was unuſual, his Majeſty deſires nothing of this Kind may happen for the Future." The Lord Mayor deſired the Paper might be delivered to him. The Lord Chamberlain ſaid he acted officially, and had it not in Orders to deliver the Paper. The Lord Mayor then deſired a Copy: To which the Lord Chamberlain replied, he would acquaint his Majeſty, and take his Directions; but he did not return until the Order was brought for the whole Court to attend with the Addreſs.

The intended Expedition of a certain great Lady to the Continent, occaſions much Speculation in the political World; ſome affirm, that ſhe really intends to end her Days in her own Country, and never come to England; others ſay, that ſhe is only going to pay a ſhort Viſit to the Court of Denmark; however, we are informed, that her chief Reaſons were from a trifling Diſpute ſhe had with her Son on a late Subject.

It is intended, by a great Number of Friends to their Country, to celebrate by Illuminations and otherways, the Day when a certain D——ſ L——y of high Rank leaves this Kingdom, and it is not doubted, but many others in different Parts of this Kingdom will do the ſame, as ſoon as the good News is confirmed to them, as a Proof in what Eſteem they hold her Behaviour here.

Bets are Three to One in the City, that Mr. Alderman Beckford will be continued Lord Mayor the enſuing Year.

It was this Morning reported on Change, that the Mediation of his Britannick Majeſty between the Ruſſians and Turks, has been earneſtly requeſted by the Grand Signior, towards putting an End to the preſent deſtructive War.

We hear another Common-Hall will ſoon be ſummoned to take into Conſideration a Third Remonſtrance to the Throne.

Large Orders have been ſent to Birmingham this laſt Week, for all Kinds of Military Utenſils, which are buying up by an Agent, for the Service of the King of Pruſſia.

June 2. It is an actual Truth, that ſome Gentlemen of Fortune in the County of Middleſex are now determined to conteſt the Payment of the Land-Tax; but their intended Mode of Refuſal is wholly wide of that ſome Time ſince related in the Papers. Their Plan is this: On the Collector's Application for the Tax, they are determined to refuſe the Payment; he, of Courſe, will make a Diſtrainer, agreeable to Law, and this they propoſe quietly to ſubmit to; They then intend bringing an Action of Damages againſt the Collector, the Conſtables, &c. which muſt then be tried by a Jury; and as it will be a ſpecial Jury of Middleſex Freeholders, it will reſt with them to judge whether the County is properly repreſented or not, and, of Courſe, whether the Inhabitants of the County are liable to the King's Tax or not; and, according to that Judgment, to determine the Merits of this important Conteſt.

June 5. The Supplies granted by Parliament for the preſent Year amounted to 6,934,933l. 16s. 2d. The Ways and Means to 7,327,656l. 7s. 8d. Half-penny.

When the laſt Letters were received from Zant, a naval Engagement was daily expected between the Ruſſian and Turkiſh Fleets, who were within a Day's Sail of each other, at the Departure of the Poſt.

A Report prevails, that a neighbouring Court has ſent a Squadron of Eight Men of War to the Aſſiſtance of the Grand Signior in the Archipelago.

This Afternoon the Right Hon. Lord Holland arrived at his Houſe at Kenſington from his Travels abroad.

According to Letters from Naples, brought by this Day's Mail, the War in Greece is carried on with much Bloodſhed and Horror. At Patras, the Two hundred Albanians, having advanced before break of Day up to the Gates, ſet Fire to them; by which Means the whole Town, to the very Houſes of the Conſuls, was intirely conſumed. During the Confuſion, the Turkiſh Garriſon from the Citadel fell upon the poor Inhabitants, and put them all to the Sword, excepting the Women and Children, whom they carried into Slavery. The Conſuls eſcaped on board ſome Veſſels with a few of their Effects. At Navarino, the Ruſſians having ſprung a Mine, the Garriſon, conſiſting of 700 Turks, made a Sally, but were all cut to Pieces. At Salonica, a Fire having broke out, by which 800 Houſes were deſtroyed, the Turks, who attributed this Fire to the Natives, being joined by the Jews, fell upon them, and put them to the Sword.

June 7. We hear that the Earl of Bute is expected in Town from abroad in a few Days.

Lockhart Gordon, Eſq; is appointed Governor of Maſſachuſetts Bay, and not William Ducane, as was reported.

June 9. A Letter received yeſterday from Plymouth, dated June 3, after mentioning the Arrival there of the Tamer Sloop and the Store-ſhip from Falkland Iſland, adds, "The Crews of theſe Ships report, that ſome Time ago, Two large Spaniſh Frigates, of 36 Guns, mounted upon One Deck, arrived at Falkland Iſland, and ordered the ſmall Engliſh Squadron riding there to quit the Iſland immediately; which Order was treated with the Contempt it deſerved, and, in return, they were ordered to do the ſame. However, after laying there Eight Days, without the leaſt Intercourſe with each other, the Spaniards thought proper to leave the Iſland."

We are authorized to aſſure the Publick, that Sir Francis Bernard, Bart. is not ſuperſeded in the Government of Maſſachuſetts Bay, and that Thomas Hutchinſon, Eſq; continues Lieutenant Governor and Chief Juſtice of that Province, notwithſtanding repeated Reports to the contrary.

The Report of the Earl of Egmont ſucceeding the preſent Lord Lieutenant of Ireland is intirely void of Truth.

June 10. It is whiſpered at the Weſt End of the Town, that Two experienced naval Officers, who ſignalized themſelves laſt War, have been applied to, to reſil their former Poſts.

June 12. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales embarked at Dover on Saturday Morning at Eleven o'Clock, arrived at Calais at Four o'Clock the ſame Day in perfect Health, and at Seven o'Clock her Royal Highneſs ſet out from thence for Bruſſels.

The Remonſtrance from the County of Surrey will certainly be preſented to his Majeſty at St. James's To-morrow.

An Evening Paper of laſt Night ſays, it is but a ſhort Time ſince Lord Harcourt returned from Paris, and every Thing with that Court was ſuppoſed to be tolerably well; but it is certain that his Lordſhip has ſuddenly diſappeared within theſe Three Days. It is given out, indeed, that it is not known whither he is gone; but a Correſpondent has aſſured us, that he is certainly gone incog. to Paris, in conſequence of an Expreſs which arrived from thence laſt Thurſday.

A Correſpondent aſſerts, it is far from being fully authenticated, that the Spaniards have not availed themſelves of Port-Egmont by Surprize. It is certain, that on the Publication of this important Article of Intelligence in our daily Papers, Prince Maſſareno immediately waited on Lord Weymouth, his Majeſty's principal Secretary of State for the Southern Department, and had a long Conference with his Lordſhip, although it had been remarked, that Prince Maſſareno, before that Day, had not been ſeen at Lord Weymouth's Office for upwards of Three Months before this critical Affair happened; and ſays, that after the Conference between Lord Weymouth and Prince Maſſareno was over, an Engliſh Courier extraordinary was inſtantly diſpatched to Madrid for a further Ecclairciſſement into this momentous Article of Intelligence. And it is imagined, that Prince Maſſareno is permitted to go at large upon his Parole of Honour, 'til the Meſſenger extraordinary ſhall return from the Court of Madrid.

A private Letter from Paris ſays, that an Account has been received there from the Iſland of Bourbon, that the Nabob of Audernee was at the Head of a numerous Army, and in full March for the Engliſh Settlements at Madraſs, in order to lay Siege to that important Place.

Saturday Mr. Alderman Trecothick was married to Miſs Nancy Meredith, of Cheſter.

B O S T O N, July 30.

On Wedneſday the 25th, the General Aſſembly of Maſſachuſetts Bay met at Cambridge, when Governor Hutchinſon, in his Speech, informed them, that it being his Majeſty's expreſs Orders, that the General Aſſembly ſhould be held in the Town of Cambridge, he (the Governor) had no Power to convene them elſewhere; alſo, that his Majeſty's Attorney and Solicitor General had declared their Opinion, that there was nothing in the Charter or Province Law, that could in the leaſt reſtrain his Majeſty in the Exerciſe of his Prerogative, to adjourn the Aſſembly to Cambridge, or any other Place in the Government; and that he could do Buſineſs with them in no other Place but Cambridge, ſo long as his Orders continued as they were; and therefore he earneſtly exhorted them to recede from their former Reſolution, and proceed to Buſineſs in Cambridge; and that if they ſtill refuſed, they would give their Enemies an Advantage, which they would not fail to improve to their Prejudice, and would put it out of the Power of their Friends to ſerve them.

There was as full a Meeting of the Trade, on Tueſday laſt, at Faneuil-Hall, as ever was known, to take into Conſideration the Reports relative to the Defection of New-York, and what Meaſures were neceſſary to be purſued for reſhipping the Goods which had been ſtored, as being imported contrary to the Merchants Agreement.——At this Meeting a Letter was read from Four Perſons in New York, viz. Iſaac Low, Henry Remſen, jun. Thomas Walton, and John Harris Cruger, informing, that a Majority of the Inhabitants of New-York were for an Importation of Goods, and that many Orders have actually been forwarded; but as this Intelligence was not ſufficiently authenticated, as the ſaid Four Perſons had not even declared themſelves to be authorized to give this Information, either by the ſtanding Committee or any other Body, ſaid Letter was regarded as deſigned to impoſe upon this and the other American Colonies, and to induce them to break through the moſt ſalutary Plan of Non-importation, upon which the Security of our invaluable Rights and Privileges ſo much depend.—It was therefore voted unanimouſly, that the ſaid Letter, in juſt Indignation, Abhorrence, and Deteſtation, be forthwith torn into Pieces, and thrown to the Winds, as unworthy of the leaſt Notice; which Sentence was accordingly executed.

Upon a Motion made, the Queſtion was put, Whether it is the Mind of this Body, ſtedfaſtly and religiouſly to adhere to the Non-importation Agreement; whereupon it was reſolved, that this Body, after full Debate, cannot ſee any Reaſon, that the ſaid Agreement ſhould in the leaſt Degree be abated; but on the contrary, that the Salvation of this Continent depends upon a ſteady and firm Adherence thereto, and that we will ſteadily and firmly adhere to and maintain the ſame, againſt all Oppoſition and every Diſcouragement whatever.—It was then moved, that a Letter be wrote to the ſtanding Committee of New-York, exhorting them to uſe their Influence, that ſuch Orders as may have forwarded by their Merchants for Goods, may be manded, and that the Non-importation Agreet be again come into by thoſe who had vioe.—There never was greater Unanimity or diſcovered for the general Intereſt of Ame this Meeting, which ſtands adjourned to xt, 3 o'Clock, p. m.

, almoſt all thoſe Merchants who have had oods ſtored, have already given Orders for their immediately trucked to the Veſſel provided for urpoſe.

Thurſday laſt the Houſe of Repreſentatives unanimouſly came into a Reſolution, there being upwards of Seventy Members preſent, to abide by their Reſolution in the laſt Seſſion; viz. "That it is by no Means expedient to proceed to Buſineſs, while the General Aſſembly is thus conſtrained to hold the Seſſion out of the Town Houſe in Boſton." And on the ſame Day they appointed a Committee to prepare a Meſſage to his Honour the Lieutenant Governor, acquainting him with this Determination.

By a Veſſel from St. John's, Newfoundland, we have Advice of the Arrival of his Excellency, Commodore Byron, in his Majeſty's Ship Antelope, the 18th ult. in 31 Days from England; alſo the Hon. Lieutenant Governor Gorham, who came Paſſenger, and proceeded from thence to his Government of Placentia.

Auguſt 2. Laſt Week arrived at Marblehead Captain Glover from Gibraltar, in Six Weeks Paſſage: There was at Gibraltar a Daniſh Fleet, conſiſting of Four Ships of the Line, Three Frigates, and Three Bombs; they were bound to Algier, to demand Satisfaction for ſome Captures and Inſults on the Daniſh Subjects: A very large Number of Engliſh Merchant Veſſels were at Gibraltar, who were obliged to wait 'til the ſaid Fleet was ſupplied with Water: They had put into Cadiz, but were refuſed Supplies.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, dated June 3.

"This Day arrived in this Bay a Fleet of Daniſh Men of War, to the Amount of Ten Sail, which are going to take Algier from the Algerines; for theſe People have made a great Slaughter amongſt the Daniſh Merchant Ships."

Another Letter from Gibraltar of the ſame Date mentions, Eight Sail of Daniſh Men of War and Two Bomb Ketches arriving there, and that it was expected that the Turks will declare War with all Chriſtian Nations except the Engliſh; for the Ruſſians gain Ground of the Turks daily: That the Turks put to Death in April laſt 18000 Greeks, on Account of ſome of the Greeks in another Place rebelling and turning to the Ruſſians.

ANNAPOLIS, AUGUST 23.

TO THE PRINTER.

Auguſt 10, 1770.

The COMMITTEE of INSPECTION, together with a Number of the moſt reſpectable Inhabitants of Talbot County, taking into Conſideration the late infamous Defection of a prevailing Faction in New-York, from their own Engagements, reſpecting the Non-importation of Goods from Great Britain, and from the common Cauſe of America, do, in order to teſtify and publiſh to the World their Deteſtation and Abhorrence of ſo ſelfiſh and ſhameleſs a Procedure, enter into the following Reſolves:

I. Reſolved, THAT the Non-importation Agreement is a Meaſure well calculated to prevent Luxury, to promote Induſtry, and to procure a Redreſs of American Grievances; and that a firm and ſteady Adherence to it will, in all Probability, produce theſe ſalutary Effects.

II. Reſolved, That the partial Repeal of the American Revenue Act is rather a Banter on our Underſtanding, or a Trap to enſnare us, than an Argument to induce us to depart from the Non-importing Scheme.

III. Reſolved, That an Acquieſcence in the Act retaining the Duty on Tea, would be a tacit Acknowledgment of the Right of Parliament to tax the People of America, and would probably terminate in the abſolute Slavery of theſe Colonies.

IV. Reſolved, That to purſue and to promote the Happineſs of the Community, by making our own private Intereſt give way to the publick Advantage, is noble and honourable, and the Duty of every Friend and Lover of his Country.

V. Reſolved, That the Conduct of a prevailing Faction in New-York, who, from a low and pitiful View of their own particular Intereſt, have violated their Engagements to their Country, Engagements entered into with Deliberation and Unanimity, is ſcandalous, ſordid, and infamous, as being manifeſtly founded in a vicious Selfiſhneſs, and tending to weaken the Union of the Colonies, to wound the publick Character of America, to diſhearten its Friends, and to ſtrengthen the Hands of a corrupt and oppreſſive Miniſtry, the Enemy that threatens to make us lick the Duſt of their Feet.

VI. Reſolved, That, as a Proof of our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Step lately taken by that prevailing Faction, we will renounce and break off all commercial Connexion, Correſpondence, Dealings, and Intercourſe, with the Province of New-York, until they ſhall either retract their Error, or the Act retaining the Duty on Tea be repealed.——And we do, moſt earneſtly, invite, implore, and obteſt, all the Friends of their Country and of Liberty, by all that is valuable and dear to them, to continue firm in their Adherence to the Non-importation Agreement, to break off and deſiſt from all commercial Communication and Intercourſe with the People of New-York, and to ſtand determined to mark all falſe Brethren, and particularly the wretched Authors of the preſent vile Defection, with Contempt and Diſgrace; that they may be branded as the Betrayers of their Country, be deſpiſed of the People, and become an Hiſſing among the Nations!

JOHN GORDON, Chairman.
